

Christof Wiechert

Waldorf Education for the 21st Century

The chance to further discover Waldorf education from one of its most dedicated world experts is rare and precious, and we are very excited to share this experience with you as our school continues to grow and lead the way for Waldorf education in our region.

MONDAY, JULY 5 &
TUESDAY, JULY 6
7:00 PM

Although the Tuesday lecture builds on the Monday theme, either one is complete in and of itself. You are welcome to attend either or both, at a cost of $10 per evening. Please do not let the cost be an obstacle. Sound Circle will happily reduce or waive the ticket price to accommodate your needs.

Location

Seattle Waldorf School
Grade School Campus
2nd Floor, Huckleberry Hall
2728 NE 100th Street
Seattle, WA 98125

Christof Wiechert is the head of the Educational Department of the School for Spiritual Science at the Goetheanum in Dornach, Switzerland. He grew up as a Waldorf student himself. After studying education and geography, Christof taught for 30 years at the Waldorf Scholin the Hague and co-founded the teacher-training seminar in the Netherlands.

Christof brings a great appreciation for challenges in the life of the teacher and a deep understanding of the spiritual foundations of the pedagogy. He travels throughout the world supporting the continued growth of Waldorf education and inspiring teachers in their development.
