

SEARCH FOR SELF-HOOD & THE JOURNEY OF ADOLESCENCE: OPENING OUR EYES & WORKING TOGETHER

PRESENTED BY BETTY STALEY, MA

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 16
7:00–8:30 pm

HIGH SCHOOL CAMPUS

The adolescent journey is dangerous and puzzling. Yet it is a sacred journey that all teenagers must travel. How they come through it will influence their resilience and the inspiration for their adult years. We will examine the place of the home, the school, and the community in developing healthy, resilient teenagers. Let us accompany them on their journey as guides and mentors. Open to the public. Adults only.

Betty Staley is the Program Director for Waldorf High School Teacher Education at Rudolf Steiner College in Fair Oaks, CA. A Waldorf educator for over thirty years, she is a founder of the Sacramento Waldorf High School where she taught history and literature for nineteen years. She is the author of several books.
