ADULT EDUCATION SERIES

Rite of Passage Journeys:

Honoring Life Transitions TH Oct 22 7-9p GS HH

Join the staff of Rite of Passage Journeys in exploring the history and meaning of rites of passage, through entertaining stories, photos, and lively discussion. Consciously creating initiatory experiences is essential for the health and well-being of the individual and the strength and vitality of the community and culture. Yet, meaningful rite of passage experiences are nearly absent from American society. Understanding the implications of this absence and creating new forms for ourselves and our communities is important. Journeys will explore cross-cultural examples and look at honoring transitions within contemporary communities. Open to the public.

The First Seven Years W Oct 28 7-9p GS HH

Come learn more about your child's first phase of life through age seven, and the transition to first grade. Presented by Johanna Steegmans. Open to the public.

Imbued With Spirit TH Jan 7 7-9p GS HH

Learn more about the roots of Waldorf EducationSM and the role of spirituality in this 90 year-old philosophy. Presented by Johanna Steegmans. Open to the public.

Waldorf Education and Students With Special Needs W Apr 28 7-9p GS HH

Johanna Steegmans will discuss the Waldorf approach to working with special needs students. Open to the public.

Johanna Steegmans was born, raised, and trained as a pediatrician in southern Germany. She came to Seattle in 1989. Here she completed her training in Naturopathic Medicine at John Bastyr University. Johanna was on the founding faculty of Sound Circle Center, teaching Early Childhood courses and the Foundation Year. Now, besides co-directing the Foundation Year Studies at Sound Circle Center, Johanna travels and teaches here and abroad. and works out of a private practice in Seattle.
