

Seattle Waldorf School Seeks a High School Choir Teacher

Part-Time Position for the 2019–2020 School Year

About the Position

Seattle Waldorf School is now accepting applications for an enthusiastic High School Choir Director for 2019-20. Classes are on Tuesday and Thursday, 2:30–3:30 p.m. during the school year. This teacher will inspire students in grades 9–12 in their study of choral music and be responsible for two periods of instruction each week. This position is an excellent opportunity for someone to continue building a recently established program. Candidates must have experience in choral direction and with teaching high school students. Formal music training required; graduate degree and/or Waldorf certification preferred.

About SWS

Founded in 1980, Seattle Waldorf School is a Washington State approved school serving approximately 400 students in programs from preschool through grade 12. The school is a full member of the Association of Waldorf Schools of North America (AWSNA), an accredited school of the Northwest Association of Independent Schools (NWAIS), and a member of the Washington Federation of Independent Schools (WFIS).

Our wooded grade school campus and our early childhood program, both in north Seattle, offer students intimate settings to learn and grow, while the high school is located in the vibrant Magnuson Park complex.
