

Seattle Waldorf School Seeks a High School Social Studies Teacher

Part-Time to Full-Time Position (Depending on Experience and Availability),
Beginning August 2019

About the Position

Seattle Waldorf School is now accepting applications for an enthusiastic High School Social Studies Teacher for the 2019–20 school year. This teacher will inspire students in grades 9–12 in their study of history, civics, and aesthetics. Candidates should have experience in teaching high school aged students, preferably in a Waldorf environment. Bachelor's degree required, graduate degree and/or Waldorf teaching certification preferred.

About SWS

Founded in 1980, Seattle Waldorf School is a Washington State approved school serving approximately 400 students in programs from preschool through grade 12. The school is a full member of the Association of Waldorf Schools of North America (AWSNA), an accredited school of the Northwest Association of Independent Schools (NWAIS), and a member of the Washington Federation of Independent Schools (WFIS).

Our wooded grade school campus and our early childhood program, both in north Seattle, offer students intimate settings to learn and grow, while the high school is located in the vibrant Magnuson Park complex.
