

Seattle Waldorf School Seeks an Early Childhood (PS & K) After-School Caregiver

Part-Time Position, Beginning September 2019

About the Position

Seattle Waldorf School seeks a Caregiver to work with our Early Childhood After-School program. A responsible, reliable, strong communicator with a warm, caring, disciplined way with children and a background in child development or early childhood education is an ideal candidate. A sound understanding of Waldorf education is a must. The Caregiver is responsible for preparing the space, leading the children through the rhythm of the program, and cleaning up at the end of the day. Candidates must be comfortable working outdoors in all weather.

About SWS

Founded in 1980, Seattle Waldorf School is a Washington State approved school serving approximately 400 students in programs from preschool through grade 12. The school is a full member of the Association of Waldorf Schools of North America (AWSNA), an accredited school of the Northwest Association of Independent Schools (NWAIS), and a member of the Washington Federation of Independent Schools (WFIS).

Our wooded grade school campus and early childhood program, both in north Seattle, offer students intimate settings to learn and grow, while the high school is located in the vibrant Magnuson Park complex. For more information about Seattle Waldorf School, please visit our website at seattlewaldorf.org.

Compensation

The position is currently 20/22.5 hours per week following the school year calendar (4/4.5 hours per day in the early afternoon). This is an hourly position that is not benefits-eligible.

To Apply

Interested candidates should respond immediately by email with a letter of interest, resume, and employment application, available on the school website at:
